Slated for Thursday, March 7, 2013 at 1000 hours at the Gregorio D. Perez Marina, these activities are evidence of the Port's commitment to not only support Guam's tourism industry but also to provide a safe and secured environment for the island's fishing and recreational users.

"Our staff has been working diligently with Black Construction and our stakeholders to arrive at this point. We thank the Board of Directors and Governor Calvo for their support of our vision to upgrade this and all our other facilities", stated General Manager Joanne Brown.
