the charity stripe, making 10 of 11 free throws.

Ryanna Ngirchomlei helped establish an early lead for the Warriors, recording four steals in the first quarter alone. The Warriors were up 17-10 at the end of the first quarter and were up 21-16 by halftime.

The Warriors came out of the locker room on fire and found their rhythm on offense. Gabreanna Hahn capped a 6-0 Warrior run with a long jumper to go up by 13 points in the third quarter.

The Knights showed their fight in the final period and played more aggressively with Ella Wigsten, Del Carmen, and Peters taking shots. The Warrior free throw shooting saved the day with Quintanilla making all of her free throws in the final quarter to stamp their ticket to the championship.

Free throw shooting was an issue for the Knights, missing 17 total free throws for the contest.

Ngirchomlei had 11 points, seven steals, and five assists for the Warriors, Hahn had 10 points and six rebounds for St. Paul.

“Our strategy was to play good defense because defense wins games,” said Ngirchomlei. “Later in the game, we were rushing on offense, so we needed to take our time.”

It was a good run by the Knights, who will play for third place against the Panthers. Peters had a game-high 20 points, Del Carmen had her way in the paint with 16 points and 15 rebounds.

Quintanilla said the focus for the championship game will be defense and team ball: “Communication, in general, is key. We need to work together as a team.”

Academy defeats Guam High

Torie Rapadas had 12 points and six assists to lead the Cougars. Maddy Ada had seven points and eight rebounds, Maria-Jean Paulino had seven points and seven steals for Academy.

The big game will be played on Tuesday at the UOG Field House.

Ryanna Ngirchomlei scores for St. Paul on Dec. 9, 2023, at the semifinal game
