NEWS RELEASE

Port reopens following storm passage

Piti, Guam, October 11, 2023: The Port Authority of Guam was reopened at 12 p.m. today along with the Hågat and Hagåtña marinas.

U.S. Coast Guard Captain Nicholas Simmons, Captain of the Port, issued the all-clear to open from the waterway perspective at 12 p.m. today and Port General Manager Rory J. Respicio immediately issued the all-clear from the dockside.

"We are expecting the arrival of Matson's Lurline this afternoon following our assessment of all three STS gantry cranes," said Port General Manager Rory J. Respicio.

Meanwhile, assessments are ongoing at the Port Authority of Guam facilities following the passage of Typhoon Bolaven.

There was minimal debris damage at the marinas and in the terminal yard.
